

How do I edit my profile once it is printed?

You cannot edit the profile once it has gone to print. You have to surrender the UDID card stating the reason for surrender and you have to generate the card again.

What if I lose my receipt?

Visit www.swavlambancard.gov.in, on the home page, click on 'Track Your Application Status'. You can write your Aadhaar card number and track and download the acknowledgment again.

Can we apply for UDID if we do not have a Disability Certificate?

Yes, even if you do not have a disability certificate, you can apply for UDID

Do I need to renew my UDID card?

If your UDID card is permanent i.e. if 'P' is written on the top of the card, then you do not need to renew your card. However, if your card is temporary, that is, if it has 'T' written on it, then you need to renew your card. Your hospital will mention after how many years your card needs to be renewed. Please Note: You have to visit the same hospital for UDID renewal.

How do I renew my card?

Go to www.swavlambancard.gov.in, click on "Apply for Renewal of Disability Certificate". Fill the details and submit the form for renewal.

Nayi Disha - an Information Resource Center for People With Intellectual & Developmental Disabilities

What is UDID?

Unique Disability Identity Document (UDID) is a sort of Identity Card for those who have any kind of disability (Persons With Disability). The UDID card is also known as the Swavalamban card. With the objective of creating a unified system for issuing Universal ID and Disability Certificate, the UDID project has been initiated by the Department of Empowerment and Empowerment of Persons with Disabilities.

To know more details related with the status of UDID, please visit <http://disabilityaffairs.gov.in/content/> and contact your respective state nodal officer, to see the state wise directory.

  844 - 844 - 8996

www.nayi-disha.org

@nayidisharesourcecentre

Feel free to write to us with your suggestions or queries, at contactus@nayi-disha.org

Process of applying for UDID

The process and procedure to apply for a Unique Disability Identification Document (UDID) can be done with the Swavalamban website. The steps to register for UDID are as under:

Visit the www.swavlambancard.gov.in for swavalamban website. (Being the Indian government website and all data provided here is completely safe and secure.)

Click on the link www.swavlambancard.gov.in to apply for a disability certificate and UDID card. (This link is available on the right side of the home page screen)

Fill in all the relevant details like personal, disability, employment, and identity-related information in the application form

Upload all the required documents (original Aadhaar card, passport-size picture, signature or thumb impression, etc.)

After the completion of registration process, you will receive an email mentioning your enrollment number on the email ID and contact number provided by you in the form above. (Please download and save the receipt.) The receipt will contain the child's UDID enrollment number and the names of government hospitals available in the vicinity, where you can take your child for evaluation.)

 To get more insight and to understand the step-by-step process for registration of UDID you can visit the (www.swavlambancard.gov.in) swavalamban's website to view the video available for this purpose

Documents required: The applicant need to have with them a photo or scanned copy of the following documents:

- Original Aadhaar Card (If the permanent address is different from the correspondence address, document for permanent address will be required.)
- Passport size photo
- Signature or thumb impression (Please take the image on a blank white paper.
- Original disability certificate (if applicable)(optional).
- Income certificate(optional)

Steps after registration

As soon as your registration will get completed, you will receive a message on your registered phone number and email ID.

You can download the receipt of submitted application form from www.swavlambancard.gov.in the Swavalambancard website.

You can go to the hospital (or the nearest hospital mentioned in the received acknowledgement copy electronically), show the acknowledgement there , and get an evaluation done for the said purpose.

Once the assessment and verification is done, your UDID card will be sent for paper printing.

With the help of your the enrolment number mentioned on acknowledgement/registered mobile number/Aadhaar number, one can track the status of your UDID card on the website www.swavlambancard.gov.in of the Self-Reliance Card using

After the UDID card is created electronically, the concerned person can download their e-disability card and e-UDID card physically too.

 Once the UDID card is made, you cannot make any changes into it.

FAQ (Frequently asked questions)

I have a Disability Certificate, why do I need UDID?

Disability certificate is issued state wise and UDID card is issued online through Swavalamban card website and is applicable across the country.

What is the expected time to get a physical copy of UDID?

It takes about a month for the UDID to be generated.

How do I get the UDID?

You can download the soft copy of UDID from the website www.swavlambancard.gov.in. The physical copy will be sent to the correspondence address mentioned on the Aadhaar card.